

Labour Radio Needs You!!

Live "On Air" Sundays from 4:00 - 5:00 pm

Q. Isn't it time that Labour had it's own voice in the electronic media?

A. We already have a radio program on Co-op radio, don't we?

Response: Yes we do... However, there is an opportunity to start with this new radio show on

CJSF FM 90.1

What?

Labour Radio is the name of the program. We need volunteers to help get labour's message to people out in your community. Volunteers to do interviews, create features, to aid the show host, to report on union functions and activities.

When?

The new show will be aired starting on February 1, 2004 from 4:00 - 5:00 pm. We will need volunteers to work throughout the week leading up to each show. When and how you volunteer is up to you. You make your own hours.

Where?

Simon Fraser University radio station CJSF FM 90.1. Contact www.cjsf.bc.ca for location details.

Who?

Shane Polák of the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC) is looking for volunteers to help in his proposed new radio show "Labour Radio". It is a 1 hour radio show on CJSF on Sunday afternoons. To volunteer you have to become a member of the Simon Fraser Radio Society. It is free to join. Training is free. Go to the website to learn how to become a station member. You don't have to be a student at SFU to join.

If you want more information please contact Shane at 604-619-0308.

You can help Vancouver become more educated about the issues you care about.
